- Maintain accurate registers, records, and administrative tasks
- Promote positive behaviour and ensure pupil wellbeing
- Communicate effectively with pupils and staff

What We're Looking For:

- A minimum Level 3 childcare qualification (desirable)
- First aid qualification (desirable, but full training can be provided)
- Previous experience of supporting pupils with Maths and English in KS1 and KS2
- Ability to motivate and encourage pupils
- Confidence, creativity and high standards of conduct
- Professionally discreet and able to respect confidentiality
- Ability to communicate effectively with parents, carers and other professionals
- Ability to work as part of a team, reliable, good time keeping, patient and caring

Benefits:

- Complimentary refreshments
- A generous, enhanced pension scheme
- Access to an extensive discounts platform
- The school provides staff with a range of benefits to support in everyday life including; 24/7 access to an online GP or Advanced Nurse Practitioner
- Free, on-site parking
- Ultimate Activity Club discounts - staff are currently entitled to a discount on school holiday camps for children with Ultimate Activity
