

Easter Holiday Activities

Make a video diary of life in lockdown. You are living in an extraordinary period of time and this is something you might like to share in the future with your children and grandchildren.

Watch an episode of 'Come Dine with Me' to understand the format of the programme and then have a family competition. Either individually or in teams (parents vs children for example) cook a three course meal with entertainment (you could even dress for dinner). Score the meal out of 10 (video or record your marks and feedback) and have a prize for the winner(s).

Get creative with a range of online drawing tools such as Snapseed, VSCO, Pixlr, Over, Sketchclub, Brushes, Redux, Magic Eraser, Pics Art, Repix, Green Screen, PS Express, iMovie, Cute Cut and Procreate.

Explore galleries and artefacts online. Visit: British Museum

Go on a country walk and take some artistic photographs.

Design your own lockdown meme.

Create a political blog for 16+ students. Visit: psa

Enter a historical fiction competition. Visit: history.org.uk

View performances from the National Theatre on YouTube. New releases every Thursday.

View free online musical performances. Visit: The Royal Opera House

Try an online Escape Room. Visit: escapefromhome.co.uk

Easter Holiday Activities

Listen to live music. Many bands and orchestras are making their performances available for free.

Visit: digitalconcerthall.com
classicfm.com

Practise a musical instrument. With lots of free online learning resources available and songs via YouTube, it is a great time to practise together and can be fun and therapeutic.

Create your own music. A free digital audio workstation, which we use in school, is an easy way of creating music without ever practising a single scale. Visit: lms

Access a range of shows.

Visit: digital theatre

Username and password have been included in email home last week.

Mute your favourite television programme and add your own storyline, by reading facial expressions and body language. Can you guess the correct emotion in the scene?

Spend time in your garden, get active, play sport and even have a go at growing your own plants, flowers or vegetables.

Live stream West End shows. Andrew Lloyd Webber has released the Show Must Go On through YouTube.

Also Visit: Willows Musical

Turn family charades into a game show by making your own score boards and theme music.

Join the fun at a virtual zoo day.
Visit: chesterzoo.org

The Latin Programme offers games, worksheets and a writing challenge.
Visit: Latin Programme

Listen everyday to a free 20 minute audio story book from the World of David Walliams. Visit: Elevenses

Become a wildlife spotter and discover garden guides and tips for your daily walk. Visit: Wildlife Trust